PARTICIPATION COMMITMENT:

The Board holds a business meeting lasting approximately 2 hours (6pm-8pm) every other month in-person with a virtual option on the 3rd Wednesday of the months of February, April, June, August, October and December, and an annual retreat for a full day, once annually. In addition, you will be asked to serve on a committee, as outlined in the bylaws. Committee participation is required, and time commitments vary based on the committee(s) of choice. Committee charters can be provided to an applicant at their request. This related time commitment varies, as a few hours annually, scheduled intermittently per the committee(s) determination. Are you able to make this time commitment?

Yes  or No

AFFIRMATION OF BOARD DEVELOPMENT:

At which time there are vacancies on the board of directors for The ANECO, you will support the acquisition of additional board members per the board development expectations. Additionally, at the time in which you depart the board, you will support the board president and executive director to find an appropriate replacement.
